INTERNATIONAL LAW WEEKEND/99

"International Law in 2000: A Bridge Between the 20th and 21st Centuries"

The sponsors of International Law Weekend/99 invite you to participate in an exciting program for practitioners, academics, students, government officials, NGO members, and U.N. diplomats that explores the intricacies of the practice of international law, both public and private.

The three-day conference, featuring over 150 distinguished speakers on 33 panels, will be held from November 4 - November 6, 1999, at the House of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, 42 West 44th Street, NYC. Due to the generosity of its sponsors, the program is open to all without charge or advance registration, except for those registered for CLE credit, and those registered for the following events at which meals are served:

The Friday luncheon seminars are $16 for those who want a box lunch. Without lunch, admission is free.

The cost for the Friday evening cocktails and dinner at the Harvard Club is $80 (students: $45).

The Saturday luncheon cost is $34 (students: $20).

Register for CLE and meals (see registration forms printed in the back of this brochure) by Monday, October 25, 1999. Refunds will not be made on registrations canceled after this date.

CLE credit will be available for four of the panels, indicated with an *, and pre-registration for these events is requested. The cost for participants receiving CLE credit is $50 per panel.

Conference cassettes will be available of the 33 panels and 2 keynote speeches at a price of $10 per panel. Tapes may be ordered in advance by filling out the form on the last page of this brochure, or purchased at the Conference.

There is no official hotel for the Conference; for your reference the nearest hotels are: Algonquin: (212)840-6800, Iroquois: (212)840-3080, Paramount: (212)764-5500, Royalton: (212)869-4400, Mansfield: (212) 944-6050. Reservations should be made early since this is traditionally a very busy weekend.
